

Harris County Precinct 4's Senior Adult Program
Presents a field trip to the

Nutcracker Market

at Reliant Center

Friday, November 13, 2009

10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Just in time for the holiday shopping season: Precinct 4's Senior Adult Program offers transportation to the Houston Ballet's Nutcracker Market at Reliant Center. The market features more than 300 national and international merchants with unique items including home décor, gourmet food, apparel, accessories, toys, garden items, and much more!

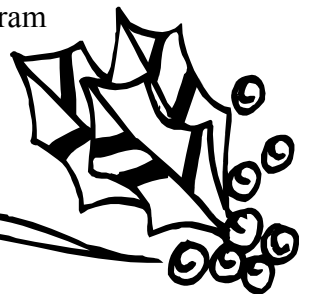

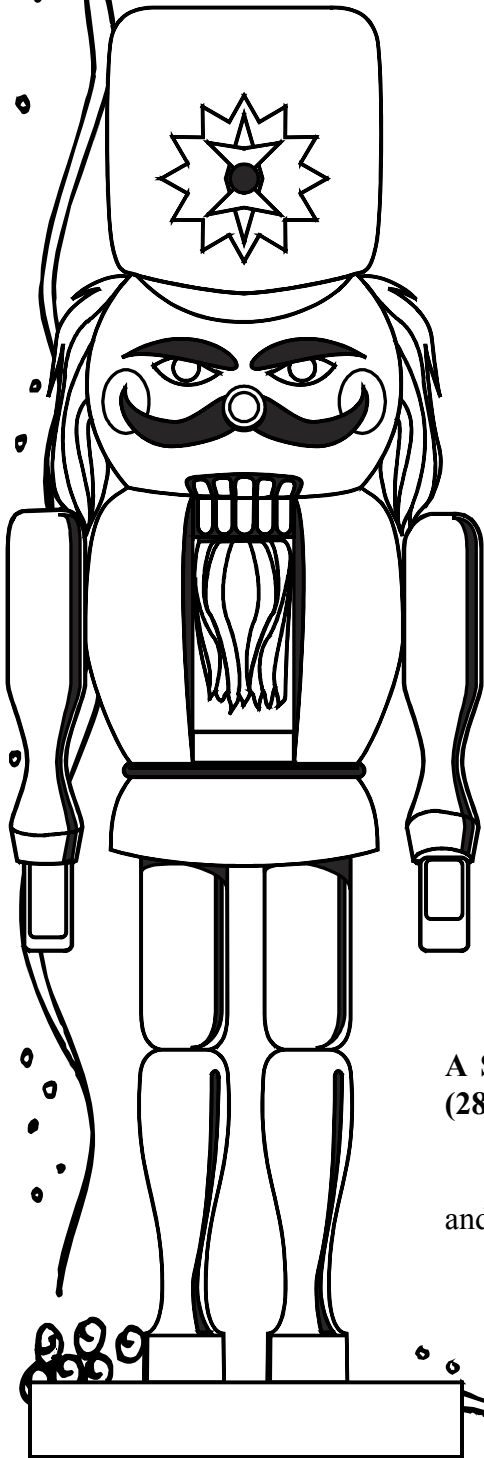

The Nutcracker Market, which has become an annual tradition that kicks off the holiday season in Houston, supports the fund-raising efforts for the Houston Ballet Foundation's academy and scholarship programs. If you like to shop or just want to enjoy the ambiance of this festive shopping experience, sign up now! Tickets are $11 per person at the door. Lunch is on your own at Reliant Center.

Transportation for individuals ages 50 and better departs at 9 a.m. from the Humble Civic Center, Spring Baptist Church, and Tomball College. See reverse for addresses to each location.

ADVANCE REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED TO RESERVE A SEAT ON A BUS! Call Precinct 4's Senior Adult Program, (281) 893-3726, ext. 47.
